TO OUR FRIENDS:

I have a lot of reasons why I enjoy being a part of a Bible class. Here are just a few.

1. It is Bible-centered. The classes of which I am a part are truly Bible classes. Of course, we share other thoughts, but we continually "search the Scriptures" for our final answers to all matters.
2. It is filled with Bible-lovers. The members of my classes want to be fed by God's Word, not by human opinion. The Bible is the "lamp to our feet" and the "light to our pathway," so we love the answers it alone gives.
3. It is a place for us to share triumphs and tragedies. Of course, we wish our classes were larger, but, being a smaller group, it is a place where we can get to know one another. When someone has a great moment, or a hard moment in life, our class can help him or her through it in a great way.
4. It is a place of prayer. Often, our classes pause and pray. We sometimes have prayer requests and we do our best to honor those. As we grow closer together, we pray for each other more.
5. It causes me to study more. As the instructor, I am charged with the responsibility to do my best. However, I don't have all the answers (only God does!), so I want to study more so the classes will be more helpful and effective. And, when our study is done, I am left with more I want to study from a particular book or topic.

These are just five reasons why I love my Bible class. If you have not been involved in a Bible class in awhile (or never), or if you think they are just a drudgery, look over this list again. Your Bible class has a seat waiting on you so you can learn both the milk and the meat of the Word.

Come to our Bible classes, and learn more of God's Word!

6. The man who goes to church for Christ's sake rather than for himself or someone else.
7. The man who has a passion to help rather than to be helped.
8. The man who has a willing mind rather than a "brilliant" mind.
9. The man who can see his own faults before he see the faults of others.
10. The man who is more concerned about winning souls for Christ than he is about winning honor.
